5.4.9 in accordance with an authority approved by ordinary shareholders in a general meeting, provided that shareholder approval shall not be required in terms of 5.4 for such unless it is required in terms of the Listings Requirements or the Act.

5.5 The Company may apply to the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission to exclude from any rights offer any Foreign Shareholder or any other category of holders of the Company's Securities who are not resident within South Africa.

5.6 Notwithstanding 5.5, any pro rata offer of any Securities to any person shall be subject to the possible exclusion of any persons who are prohibited by any law of any country to whose jurisdiction they are subject, from participation in that offer.

5.7 Notwithstanding the provisions of 5.4, the shareholders may at a general meeting authorise the directors to issue Securities of the Company at any time and/or grant options to subscribe for Securities as the directors in their discretion think fit, provided that such transaction(s) has/have been approved by the JSE and comply with the Listings Requirements and the Act and that shareholder approval will not be required for such issue unless it is required in terms of the Listings Requirements or the Act. [10.1]

5.8 After the expiration of the time within which an offer may be accepted, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the Securities offered, the directors may, subject to the foregoing provisions, issue such equity Security in such manner as they consider most beneficial to the Company. The directors may exclude any shareholder or category of shareholder from an offer contemplated in 5.4 if and to the extent that they consider it necessary or expedient to do so because of the Foreign Ownership Restriction, other legal impediments or compliance with the laws or the requirements of any regulatory body of any territory that may be applicable to the offer.

5.10 Should there be any issued preference shares in the share capital of the Company, the issue of further Securities ranking in priority to, or pari passu with those preference shares, shall be deemed to be a variation of the rights attached to those preference shares, which will adversely affect those rights and no further Securities of any class ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, existing preference shares, of any class, shall be created without a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of such preference shareholders. [10.5(f)]
5.11 The holders of Securities, other than ordinary shares and any special shares created for the purposes of black economic empowerment Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act No. 53 of 2003 and the Codes of Good Practice on Black Economic Empowerment, shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution taken by the Company, save for as permitted by paragraph 10.5(h) of the Listings Requirements. [10.5(c)]

5.12 Subject to any preferences, rights or limitations under which any Securities are held, the preferences, rights or limitations attached to all or any Securities of any class may be amended, varied, cancelled or expanded by a special resolution of shareholders at a general meeting. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the rights attaching to shares (unless the terms attaching to the shares specifically provide otherwise) shall be deemed to be amended by the creation or issue of any other shares ranking pari passu or in priority to any shares already issued by the Company. No amendment, variation, cancellation or expansion of any preferences, rights, limitations and other terms attaching to any other class of shares already in issue shall be effected without -

5.12.1 a special resolution, taken by the holders of shares in that class, at a separate meeting. In such instances, the holders of such shares will be allowed to vote at the meeting of ordinary shareholders. No resolution of shareholders of the Company shall be proposed or passed, unless a special resolution of the holders of the shares of that class, approved the amendment; or [10.5(e)]

5.12.2 the approval thereof by a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares in question in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as a special resolution of the shareholders of the Company, and the provisions of the Act and this Memorandum of Incorporation relating to general meetings shall apply to such separate general meeting, except that a quorum at any such general meeting shall be 3 (three) persons present in person or by proxy, holding at least 25% (twenty five per cent) of the issued shares of the class in question, provided that if a quorum is not so present, the provisions of section 64(4) shall apply, the meeting shall be adjourned to the 5th (fifth) business day thereafter, and the shareholders present or represented at the meeting to which the adjournment takes place, shall constitute a quorum.

5.13 No shares of the Company may be authorised in respect of which the preferences, rights, limitations or any other terms may be varied and no resolution may be proposed to the Company's shareholders for such variation in response to any objectively ascertainable external fact or facts as provided for in sections 37(6) and 37(7) of the Act. [10.5(g)]

5.14 The Company may pay to any person a commission for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any Securities issued or to be issued by the Company, provided that, for so long as any Securities of the Company are listed on the JSE, any such commission shall not exceed 10% (ten percent) of the consideration payable for such subscription. [10.14]

purpose of transferring Securities, when lodged, produced or exhibited to or with the Company, shall, as between the Company and the grantor of such authorities, be deemed to remain in full force and effect, and the Company may allow it to be acted upon, until such time as written notice of the revocation thereof is lodged at the offices of the transfer secretaries of the Company. Even after the lodging of such notice of revocation, the Company may give effect to any instrument of transfer signed under the authority to sign and certified (before the lodging of such notice) by any officer of the Company, as being in order. [10.2(b)]

8.2 Any person who submits proof of his appointment as the executor, administrator, trustee, curator or guardian in respect of the estate of a deceased shareholder or holder of other Securities ("Security Holder") of the Company, or of a Security Holder who’s estate has been sequestrated or of a Security Holder who is otherwise under a disability, or as the liquidator of any body corporate which is a Security Holder, shall be entered in the Securities Register nomine officii, and shall thereafter, for all purposes, be deemed to be a Security Holder. [10.13]

8.3 Subject to the provisions of 8.1 and 8.2, any person becoming entitled to any Security by virtue of death of a Security Holder shall, upon producing such evidence that he has such title or rights as the Board thinks sufficient, have the right either to have such Security transferred to himself or to make such other transfer of the Security as such Security Holder could have made, provided that in respect of a transfer other than to himself -

8.3.1 the Board shall have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a proposed transfer of such Security by such Security Holder before his death; and

8.3.2 a person becoming entitled to any Security shall not, unless and until he is himself registered as a Security Holder in respect of such Security, be entitled to exercise any voting or other right attaching to such Security or any other right relating to meetings of the Company. [10.13]
